

The Town of Ledgeview promotes future development in a manner that supports a high-quality community that is attractive to existing and new businesses. The Economic Development Department works with business and property owners to retain existing businesses and help them expand, while recruiting new commercial, office, and industrial opportunities.

Ledgeview Community Profile

The community profile provides a general overview of Ledgeview's demographic, economic, and physical characteristics. It is intended to provide an at-a-glance view of key factors which influence our town's economic development and assist businesses when evaluating potential opportunities in Ledgeview.

Tax Incremental Financing Districts

The Town of Ledgeview is a growing municipality within the Green Bay metropolitan area, attracting higher-income households to large suburban homes is newly developed subdivisions. Ledgeview has positioned itself in commercial areas to create unique destination venues for shopping, dining, entertainment, and services for residents in the southern part of the metropolitan area.

Ledgeview Business Directory

Ledgeview is the home to almost 200 successful businesses. From small boutique stores to large production facilities, we offer the ideal locations and incentives to let commerce flourish. Ledgeview offers a variety of business location options with easy access to interstates and local amenities. The I43

Business Park and CTH G and CTH GV Neighborhood Center provide signature entrances into the Town of Ledgeview and the Green Bay region.

Business Development Programs & Resources

Find links to town, county, regional, state, and federal programs that provide tools for starting a business in Wisconsin, financial assistance, and helpful resources for business owners.

Contact Sarah Burdette at (920)336-3360 ext. 108 or email sburdette [at] ledgeviewwisconsin.com with any questions regarding the Town's Economic Development.

View PDF